LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a) A printed copy of such Bill;
- (b) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House;
- (c) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¼ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated September 25th, 1944.

JOHN INGLIS CO., LIMITED, ALTERATION TO OBJECTS OF ASSOCIATION.

No. 3148A.

NOTICE is hereby given that the publication in The British Columbia Gazette on page 2890, of September 26th, 1946, of the registration of John Inglis Co., Limited, as an extra-provincial company was in error in stating that the business which the Company will carry on in the Province is "as manufacturers and merchandisers of heavy industrial machinery and equipment." The business which the Company will carry on in the Province is as follows:—

(a) To manufacture, buy, sell, and otherwise acquire, equip, set up, repair, and deal in and with engines, boilers, power plant equipment, hydraulic equipment of all kinds, electrical, mining, and industrial equipment, tools, implements of all kinds, automobile trucks and supplies, aeroplanes and supplies, steamboats, tugs, and other floating equipment and generally to buy, sell, exchange, and deal in all materials, metal and articles used in the manufacture, operation, and repair of the said property or any of the same; to carry on in all its branches the business of general engineers and contractors and to construct, execute, carry out, equip, improve, work, and develop public and private works and conveniences of all kinds and the equipment thereof:

(b) To carry on any or all lines of business as manufacturers, producers, merchants, wholesale and retail importers and exporters generally without limitation as to class of products and merchandise, and to manufacture, produce, adapt, prepare, buy, sell, and otherwise deal in machinery, tools, implements or any materials, articles or things required in connection with or incidental to such business or businesses:

(c) To carry on business as investors and promoters and to execute and carry on all kinds of financial, commercial, trading, and other operations; and to carry on the business of promoting, organizing, establishing, administering, operating, purchasing, acquiring, disposing of, and otherwise dealing in and with financial, commercial, industrial, manufacturing, transportation, agricultural, mining, and other enterprises with a view to profit:

(d) To purchase and otherwise acquire, take on lease, sell, exchange, lease, turn to account, dispose of, and deal with any real or personal property and any interest therein and rights of all kinds and, in particular, options, contracts, businesses, concerns, and undertakings:

(e) Subject to the provisions of the "Companies Act," to issue paid-up shares, bonds, debenture stock and (or) securities of the Company for the payment, either in whole or in part, of any property, real or personal, claims, privileges, licences, concessions, franchises or other rights or advantages which the Company may lawfully acquire and, with the approval of the shareholders, for services rendered to or work performed for it and to issue such fully paid-up shares, bonds, debenture stock and (or) other securities of the Company in payment or part payment or exchange for the shares, bonds or debenture stock and (or) other securities of any other company:

(f) To cause or allow the legal title, estate, and interest in any property or business acquired, established or carried on by the Company to remain or to be vested or registered in the name of or carried on by any other company or companies, foreign or domestic, formed or to be formed, either upon trust for or as agents or nominees of the Company or upon any other terms or conditions which may be for the benefit of the Company; to manage the affairs or take over and carry on the business of such company or companies so formed or to be formed, either by acquiring shares, stocks or other securities thereof or otherwise howsoever; to exercise all or any of the powers of holders of shares, stocks or securities thereof and to receive and distribute the dividends and interest on such shares, stocks or securities:

(g) To lease, sell or otherwise dispose of the whole or any part of the property, real or personal, or of the business or undertaking of the Company to any person, firm or corporation and to accept by way of consideration or part consideration for any such sale, lease or disposal any shares, debentures, debenture stock, bonds or other securities of any other company:

(h) To take or hold mortgages, hypothecs, liens, and charges to secure payment of the purchase price or for any unpaid balance of the purchase price of any part of the Company's property of whatsoever kind sold by the Company or any money due to the Company from purchasers and to sell or otherwise dispose of the said mortgages, hypothecs, liens, and charges:

(i) To promote, organize, develop, manage or assist in the promotion, organization, development, and management of any corporation, company, syndicate, enterprise or undertaking and, as incidental thereto, to undertake, manage, control or otherwise deal with the business and undertaking of any such corporation, company, firm or individual for the purpose of protecting securities issued thereby and realizing upon the claims thereon:

(j) To purchase, subscribe or apply for, take in exchange or otherwise acquire, register, hold, sell, transfer, assign or otherwise dispose of or turn to account the stock, shares, bonds, debentures, debenture stock, notes and other securities and evidence of interest in or indebtedness of and all other interest in and claims upon any person, firm, voluntary association, trust, joint stock company or corporation and, while the owner or holder thereof, to exercise, through such agent or agents as the directors may appoint, all the rights, powers and privileges of ownership, including the right to vote thereon:

(k) To procure capital, credit or other assistance for establishing, extending or reorganizing any enterprise or industry carried on or intended to be carried on by the Company or any person, firm, corporation or company with whom or which the Company has business relations:

(l) To invest, loan on the security of personal property only and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required for the purposes of the Company in such manner as from time to time, may be determined:

(m) To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake all or any of the assets, business, property, privileges, contracts, rights, obligations, and liabilities of any company, society, partnership or person carrying on any part of the business which the Company is authorized to carry on or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of the Company or of any company in which the Company holds shares, bonds, debentures, debenture stock or other securities; and, subject to the provisions of the "Companies Act" to pay for the same in cash or in shares or securities of the Company or partly in cash and partly in shares or securities or any other consideration and to carry on the business of any such company, society, partnership or person whose assets are so acquired:

(n) To apply for, promote, and obtain from the Dominion of Canada or any other authority, whether Dominion, Provincial, Imperial, Colonial or foreign and including subordinate and municipal authorities, any statute, ordinance, order, regulation or other authorization or enactment which may seem desirable to the Company or calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company or any person, firm, corporation, association or syndicate with which it has business relations; and to oppose any proceedings or application which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the interest of the Company or of any person, firm, corporation, association or syndicate with which it has business relations.
